EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The new unlocking guidelines easing the 50 percent cap on movie halls and movement restrictions on senior citizens indicates that authorities are now confident that India is winning the war against the COVID pandemic. Fresh cases have been falling consistently since September and hospitals are now focussing again on routine surgeries and ailments that got brushed aside by COVID. The evidence of high sero-presence of antibodies in cities also points to the possibility that many places are nearing herd immunity. Sero-surveys should be done regularly to gain a better understanding of the disease. Understanding how the virus transmitted to so many individuals who were possibly asymptomatic is needed to understand how the Indian trajectory has been different from other countries. The improving vaccination numbers indicate that India may be surmounting the initial glitches. Chances of a full opening up of the economy by summer have brightened. Yet, it is also important to remember that Indians took the hardest economic hit last year. The next big steps would be restoring train travel and schools. The forthcoming month should be used to scale up vaccination, which should include permitting vaccines in the private market, so that India can be among the first big countries to come out of this public health emergency. — In The Times of India

Space crew pays 55M dollars each to fly to station

Mission commander Michael Lopez-Alegria, Larry Connor, Mark Pathy and Eytan Stibbe.

Florida: The first private space station crew comprising three men are each paying 55 million dollars each to fly on a SpaceX rocket. They'll be led by a former NASA astronaut of Axiom Space, the Houston company that has arranged the trip for next January.

While mission commander Michael Lopez-Alegria is well known in space circles, "the other three guys are just people who want to be able to go to space and we're providing that opportunity," Suffredini said. The first crew will spend eight days at the space station, and will take one or two days to get there aboard a SpaceX Dragon capsule following liftoff from Cape Canaveral.

Axiom's first customers include Larry Connor, a real estate and tech entrepreneur from Dayton, Ohio, Canadian financier Mark Pathy and Israeli businessman Eytan Stibbe, a close friend of Israel's first astronaut Ilan Ramon, who was killed in the space shuttle Columbia accident in 2003.

Each of the private astronauts had to pass medical tests and will get 15 weeks of training, according to Suffredini. The 70-year-old Connor will become the second-oldest person to fly in space, after John Glenn's shuttle flight in 1998 at age 77. He'll also serve under Lopez-Alegria as the capsule pilot.

Axiom plans about two private missions a year to the space station. It also is working to launch its own live-in compartments to the station beginning in 2024. This section would be detached from the station once it's retired by NASA and the international partners, and become its own private outpost.

Russia has been in the off-the-planet tourism for years, selling rides to the International Space Station since 2001.

City remembers Mahatma on Sarvodaya Day

Mysuru, Jan. 30 (MTY&SSV)- Singing of bhajans, all-religion prayer meeting and garlanding the bust of Mahatma Gandhi marked the observance of Sarvodaya Day (Martyr's Day) in city this morning.

It was on this day, 73 years ago, the Mahatma was assassinated in Delhi in 1948. As a mark of respect, Jan. 30 is observed as Sarvodaya Diwas.

The function organised by University of Mysore (UoM) at Gandhi Bhavan was presided over by Prof. G. Hemantha Kumar, Vice-Chancellor, UoM. Speaking on the occasion, he paid rich tributes to the Mahatma and termed him a universal legendary personality who had swayed the entire world through his peaceful agitation during the freedom struggle. Gandhiji, who is fondly called as 'Bapu' by millions of his followers, always believed in empowerment of last man in society.

Prof. Hemantha Kumar said, Gandhiji strongly propagated equality and became a voice for voiceless. He strove hard to remove untouchability and casteism by visiting places of the oppressed classes. Bapu led a simple living throughout his life and lived for others. His simplicity and yearn for truth was worth emulating, he said.

G. Ramakrishna, noted social thinker, delivered a talk on Mahatma. Prof. R. Shivappa, Registrar (Administration) and Dr. A.P. Jnana Prakash, Registrar (Evaluation), Dr. M.S. Shekar, Director, Gandhi Bhavan and others were present at the event.

On this occasion, Nirmala, a retired sanitary worker, was felicitated. Students of the University Fine Arts College rendered the favourite bhajans of the Mahatma.

No takers for MCC's order on disfigurement of public property

Mysuru, Jan. 30 (SSV)- An order passed by Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) recently against the display of publicity materials without permission has been taken with a pinch of salt as the disfigurement of public property continues unabated.

Two weeks ago, the MCC authorities issued an order banning putting flex, banners, buntings, posters in public places. The violation attracts six months imprisonment and a penalty of Rs. 1,000. A drive around the city revealed that the order has remained only on paper and not implemented on the ground. There was no let up in the disfigurement of public places with putting all kinds of publicity material without the fear of law.

The MCC Commissioner passed an order to this effect to win the coveted 'clean city award' in the national level. Not stopping at that point, he had warned those who dump garbage on roadside and announced that such persons would be identified and dump the same garbage in front of their houses or shops, besides imposing a fine amount of Rs.1,000. Zonal Committees have been constituted to punish illegal garbage dumpers.

During initial days, the Corporation staff had poured the garbage in front of a shop in Kuvempunagar whose owner had dumped it on roadside. Subsequently, the drive lost the steam and some people continued to violate the order blatantly without the fear of law.

The flex to mark birthday, death, public announcement, advertisement put across city have not been cleared yet. It was not known how much more time they required to free the city from the menace of flex, banners, posters and buntings.

MCC promptly issue orders and circulars on many issues but there would no follow-up action by officials concerned. The enthusiasm when issuing orders don't last long. In this case, why the civic body must announce such things, citizens question.

VOICE OF THE READER

Road to Mysore Airport in the dark !

Sir,

The road leading to Mysore Airport does not have street lights. The cement barricades, placed in the middle of the roads, do not have reflective stickers. These are classic recipe for a major accident !

Due to lack of street lights, all the vehicular traffic move on with high beam lights in the evening, making driving risky on these roads for the oncoming motorists. Appreciate if our MP Pratap Simha could interfere and get things sorted out before it is too late.

Doctors transform life of 83-year-old through Laser Prostatectomy at Columbia Asia Hospital

Mysuru, Jan. 30 (KS)- Doctors at Columbia Asia Hospital, Mysuru, have transformed the life of a 83-year-old patient providing immediate medical attention at the right time and using advanced Laser Prostatectomy procedure for the treatment.

Balasubramanyam came to Columbia Asia Hospital with difficulty in urinating, severe abdominal pain and hypertension. He was also suffering from severe Urinary Tract Infection (UTI) since four months.

Doctors at the hospital carried out a thorough examination and diagnosed him with gross enlargement of prostate with variations in the bladder. Due to lack of awareness, the patient had delayed the treatment.

Dr. T.P. Dinesh Kumar, Senior Consultant, Urology, Columbia Asia Hospital said, "The patient had come with difficulty in passing urine and he had severe abdominal pain. We did a detailed evaluation where he was diagnosed with prostate enlargement. Although enlarged prostate is a common condition with older men, it can be uncomfortable and also lead to bladder and kidney problems. Treating it at the right time with the right kind of treatment is important. Advanced technology in healthcare has today helped in faster treatment and recovery. Hence we counselled the patient regarding the pros and cons of Laser Prostatectomy and performed the procedure."

Dr. K. Vinay, Junior Consultant, Urology, Columbia Asia Hospital said, "Balasubramanyam had hypertension which is one of the major risk factors of prostate problems. When he consulted us, we did an evaluation of his condition and considering his age we decided to go ahead with minimally invasive surgery, Laser Prostatectomy using 100w Holmium Laser which paced up his recovery."

Speaking after recovering from the advanced procedure, Balasubramanyam said, "I am extremely happy with the treatment received at Columbia Asia Hospital. I am now able to function normally keeping in mind the necessary precautions as advised by the doctors."

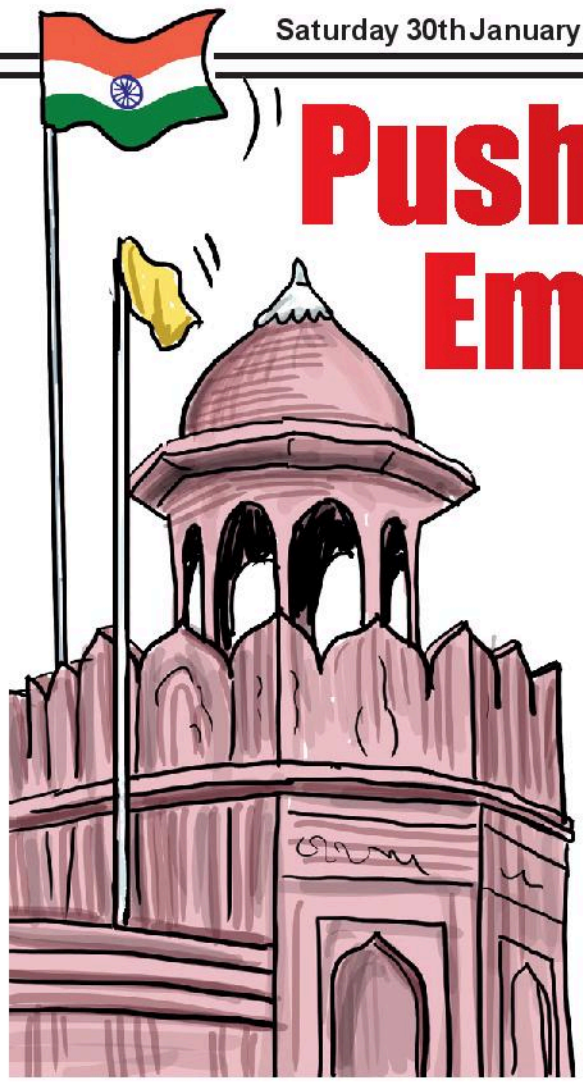
Pushing for an Emergency ?



On 26th January we saw men in blue turbans, wielding swords on horse back, ride into our Nation's capital, as if they were the cavalry of an invading army, but they were supposedly farmers and they were protesting! Guess, a 21st century farmers' protest looks like a 14th century invasion. It makes one wonder, what has expressing 'dissent' descended to in our Democracy?

This constant and aggressive protest in the name of peaceful dissent makes one wonder, is the Opposition so frustrated at being unable to defeat the BJP that it wants to take the Emergency route?

As in create enough chaos in the name of dissent, force the Government to declare President's rule in a few States, then have more protests to push the Government to declare National Emergency, after which they can claim BJP to be an undemocratic party led by Modi the dictator and win the subsequent election? Ah! The 1975 template?

The Congress knows this well, after all it happened to them. But so does the BJP and the Communist Party, after all they were on the other side back then. But again, people also know what happened when the hotch-potch party came to power post-Emergency.

Now the question, how much should one protest in a Democracy and how aggressively? How long? And at the cost of whose inconvenience? Yogendra Yadav, one among the leaders of the farmers protest, speaking of Delhi violence said that it had been two months since the farmers had been protesting and the farmers' patience was wearing thin and they were tired!

So according to Yogendra Yadav, in a Democracy if you sit for two months blocking Highways, hurting industries, inconveniencing the public, the Government should heed to the protestors' demand. And if it does not, then it's only natural to be violent? That's not Democracy, that's mobocracy. While many see the pre-Emergency protest with a sense of reverence and romance, it too was mobocracy.

Ramachandra Guha, in his finest book, India After Gandhi, speaking of the JP movement, says this: "A more detailed critique of JP's movement was offered by R. K. Patil, a former ICS officer who had later become an admired social worker in rural Maharashtra.

At JP's invitation, Patil spent two weeks in Bihar, travelling through the State and talking to a wide cross-section of people. In a long (and remarkable) letter he wrote to Narayan — dated 4 October 1974 — he conceded that 'there can be no doubt about the tremendous popular enthusiasm generated by the movement'. He saw 'unprecedented crowds attending your meetings in pin-drop silence'. However, when they were on their own these crowds were less disciplined, as in the attacks on the State Assembly and the forcible prevention of the Bihar Governor from delivering his annual address.

Patil wondered whether the modes of protest being adopted in Bihar conformed strictly to Gandhian standards. But he went further, asking the question: 'What is the scope for Satyagraha and direct action in a formal Democracy like ours . . . ?' By demanding the dismissal of a duly elected Assembly, argued Patil, 'the Bihar agitation is both unconstitutional and undemocratic'. True, the electoral process had to be reformed, made more transparent and purged of the influence of power and money. Yet once an election was held its verdict had to be honoured. For 'there is no other way of ascertaining the general opinion of the people in a Nation-State, except through free and fair elections'. Patil wrote, in conclusion, that he was 'well aware of the patent drawbacks of the Government presided over by Indira Gandhi'. But he still wasn't certain that it was 'wise to substitute for the law of "Government by Discussion", the law of "Government by Public Street Opinion".' 'Today you are a force for good', wrote Patil to JP, 'but History records that the crowds can produce a Robespierre also."

Indeed a lesson for Yogendra Yadav, opposition parties and all those supporting this repeated, aggressive, unrelenting street protests. Also remember, one day BJP will do the same, and they will justify it saying "remember 2020-21."

Today the Opposition seems hell bent on protesting. Good or Bad. Even when the highly qualified Chief Economist of IMF, Gita Gopinath, the protégé of the highly respected Amartya Sen, a much-loved economist of the Left liberals, says that the farms laws are in the interest of the farmers, the Opposition doesn't relent.

Even when they are reminded that this law was what they too wanted earlier, they disagree. So what is one to do?

No, wonder NITI Aayog CEO Amitabh Kant said, "Tough reforms are very difficult in the Indian context, we have too much of Democracy...You need political will to carry out these reforms (mining, coal, labour, agriculture) and many more reforms still need to be done. It is not easy to compete against China without hard reforms."

This reminds me of what someone said about Democracy: "Too much Democracy is not good. It's like having too much sugar in your coffee. It ruins the coffee." Yes, dissent is a very important aspect of Democracy, but blind fury, unjustifiable demands and blackmail are not.

There is no doubt that BJP is a party that is short on ideas, there is no doubt they have borrowed generously from Congress party, be it Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao Yojana which was National Girl Child Day under Congress, or even the popular Swachh Bharat Abhiyan which was Nirmal Bharat Abhiyan under Congress.

But Congress and the other parties must realise their mistake. The BJP was a party that was lying by the pantry while you were busy in the kitchen cooking up good schemes but not serving them to the people because you were busy discussing which community will benefit from which scheme or which scheme will get you vote banks. Meanwhile, the BJP sneaked in, took the good schemes you had cooked, gave it a bit of garnish, made a show of it and presented it as their own to voters and won an election.

One can understand the frustration, but stop trying to burn down the house because you messed up in the kitchen with your opportunistic liberalism.

For now, let's recall what Congress party's iron lady, Indira Gandhi once said: "Not every individual or party is always disposed to use our democratic framework to further constructive purposes. It seems that the exercise of the democratic right sometimes takes the form of freedom even to destroy."

Electric autos hit city streets

Mysuru, Jan. 30 (MTY&BCT)- Cleaner transportation and electrification in the mobility space holds immense potential for energy security and reduction of greenhouse gases. Battery and plug-in hybrid Electric Vehicles (EVs) are becoming a vital component of Mysuru's transportation landscape, offering environmental, economic, and energy benefits.

Adding to the electric two-wheelers that have already flooded the city's roads, electric three-wheelers (auto rickshaws) are entering the market. While a Mahindra Treo is already ferrying passengers, auto rickshaws from Egoo Motors have been put up for displays, attracting attention.

Owned by Mahadev from Hinkal, the Mahindra Treo was spotted in the streets of city yesterday morning. Mahadev owned a taxi before but due to increased fuel costs and COVID-19 pandemic he has switched over to electric auto. The vehicle comes with an advanced lithium-ion battery and can be charged at home.

Charged up to three hours, the auto can carry four passengers (three plus driver) up to 130 kms with a speed of 50 kms per hour. This tiny little electric auto rickshaw price ranges between Rs. 1.69 lakh to Rs. 2.79 Lakh.

"The COVID pandemic, rising fuel prices and absolute lack of passengers has made me to switch to an electric auto. I have been driving a taxi since the last 20 years and now, I have chosen an eco-friendly and an economic mode of transporting people from one place to another," Mahadev told Star of Mysore.

He booked the vehicle in December last year after he saw a demo in city in November. He took the delivery of the auto on Jan. 1. "For 15 days I travelled in the auto with my family and visited various temples. I got the vehicle registered with the RTO (KA-09-D-8761) and the authorities have given me a green number plate as it is an electric vehicle," he said.

The auto battery has a guarantee of three years or 80,000 kms and the battery will be replaced if it does not function to the optimum till the guaranteed period. As it is an eco-friendly vehicle, Mahadev has got a rebate of Rs. 40,000. He said that the electric vehicle charging point at Vijayanagar established by Chamundeshwari Electricity Supply Corporation (CESC) is a blessing as the outlet has both AC and DC charging points.

The auto rickshaw manufactured by Egoo Motors is priced at Rs. 1.70 lakh and has four batteries. The auto can travel up to 150 kms if charged for six hours. Including the driver, five members can travel in this vehicle.

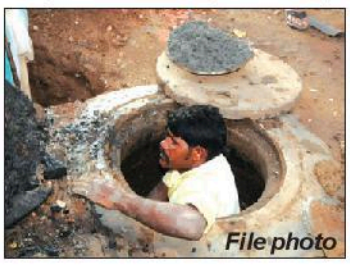
Robot to clean choked manholes in city soon

It will put end to age-old practice of manual scavenging



File photo

Mysuru, Jan. 30 (MTY&SSV)- Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) has procured a robotic scavenging machine — Bandicoot — that would effectively substitute manual scavenging of manholes and Underground Drainage (UGD) system. The cost of this machinery is Rs. 32 lakh and is manufactured by Pune-based company.

Training on operative guidelines for sanitary workers will be conducted for smooth operation of the machine. Urban Development Minister Byrati Basavaraj will launch this machinery soon.

Explaining the main features, an Officer of MCC told SOM that "the machinery comes with automatic sewer line detection and poisonous gas sensing features and it will help the Municipal authorities for safe operation of UGD. It is a complete solution for automatic de-silting, cleaning, effective unclogging using human comparable robotic arm smart user interface designed for common sewer works. It is the first manhole cleaning robot in the country, designed by Indian engineers to eradicate the age-old practice of manual scavenging with effective and efficient robotic scavenging,"

The machinery had been designed by nine engineers from Kerala. It was launched in Feb. 2018 after its successful trial run in Thiruvananthapuram, unclogging five manholes filled with plastic filth, medical waste and sediments.

The 80-kg robot lifts the heavy metal cover on its own, drops its arm into the manhole, scoops out the solid waste and dumps it in a bucket. All the operations can be viewed on a monitor. The robot can also be used to check the sewage apart from jetting the sewer lines. Bandicoot requires only one person to operate it from a safe distance.

Shivanna moots hike in breakfast allowance for Pourakarmikas from Rs. 20 to Rs. 50 per day

Expresses concern over 10-fold increase in manual scavengers in eight years

M. Shivanna

Mysuru, Jan. 30 (RKB&DM)- Karnataka State Safai Karmachari Commission Chairman M. Shivanna has said that the Commission would recommend the State Government to hike the breakfast allowance being given to Pourakarmikas from the present Rs. 20 to Rs. 50 per day and also to construct rest rooms for them at all mustering points in all Urban Local Bodies (ULBs) across the State.

Addressing a press meet at Jaladarshini Guest House here yesterday, he revealed that the number of manual scavengers has increased by 10 times in the last eight years in Karnataka. There were 302 persons when the manual scavenging was banned in 2013, now the number has increased to 3,208 — an increase of 10 times. This came to light after the survey of manual scavengers in the State.

Shivanna claimed that manual scavenging still exists in 10 City Corporations and also in Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) limits. Officials have not bothered to stop it despite the State Government banning this practice eight years ago. It was high time the authorities concerned should wake up failing which they would face tough action soon.

Condoling the death of two contract manual scavengers who allegedly died of suffocation while at work in Kalaburagi on Jan. 28, Shivanna said that he would be visiting Kalaburagi to get a first hand information about the unfortunate incident. The Commission would work out welfare plans for thousands of civic workers serving at Apartments, Hospitals, Complexes and other private establishments. There are over 1,500 UGD workers serving in various ULBs of the State, including City Corporations, and it was the responsibility of officials concerned to provide them with the safety gadgets.

He further said that the Karnataka Slum Development Board has been directed to construct more houses for Pourakarmikas as it has been found that 3-4 families were living in crunched accommodations. So far, 83 manual scavengers have died in the State of which compensation had been given to only four families. Steps would be taken for the payment of relief to families of other deceased persons as well as rehabilitation, studies of their children and job for their dependents.

The Commission will write to the Government on the need for holding Deputy Commissioner chaired meetings once in three months to discuss issues concerning Pourakarmikas and other civic workers.

Rajya Pourakarmika Jagruta Samiti Member Venkatesh was present during the press meet.

Earlier in the morning, Shivanna visited several Pourakarmika Colonies in the city for an inspection.

Tuition fee slashed by 30 percent in Pvt. Schools

Bengaluru, Jan.30 (SSV)- The State Government has ordered all Private Schools, be it Central or State syllabi, to reduce tuition fees for the current academic year by 30 percent in view of COVID-19 pandemic. The Schools have been strictly told not to collect development fees or other fees apart from tuition fee.

With this, the Government has ended the tug of fight between parents and the Private School Management over the fees. The Parents Association had threatened to hold agitation accusing the Government of not protecting the interest of parents due to pandemic. This had forced the Government to do the balancing act with both the warring faction stuck to their stand.

Addressing a news conference here yesterday, Primary and Secondary Education Minister S. Suresh Kumar said if parents have already paid the full fees, then the School Managements would have to adjust the amount in the fee paid for the next academic year.

Advisory passed

On Jan. 5, Associated Management of Primary and Secondary School (KAMS) had passed an advisory calling for reduction in School fees by its member Schools. It had suggested that Schools whose fee structure is more than Rs. 25,000 per annum can reduce 20 to 25 percent. For Schools which have fees less than Rs. 25,000 but more than Rs. 15,000 a year, it had advocated that special development fees be relaxed for the current School year. Further, for Schools whose annual fee is less than Rs. 15,000, they can reduce their term fee to a maximum of 10 percent of their whole tuition fee.

Rs. 37 lakh Garden Project begins at Dasara Exhibition Grounds

Mysuru, Jan. 30 (RKB&BCT)- An apology of a garden at Dasara Exhibition Grounds is set to get a new look as the Karnataka Exhibition Authority (KEA) is planning to beautify the campus to attract tourists who come there to take part in the annual Dasara Exhibition.

The plan coincides with the intention of the KEA to make the Grounds an all-year activity place. The authority is already planning to host a grand Summer Festival this year.

Gardens will be developed in front of industrial sheds at the Exhibition and the contract worth Rs. 7.65 lakh has been handed over to The Nurserymen Cooperative Society, Lalbagh in Bengaluru that is a part of Horticulture Department. The first phase of the project to beautify the gardens was launched by KEA Chairman Hemanth Kumar Gowda yesterday.

The entire beautification project is worth Rs. 37 lakh and the first phase of the work will be completed in two months and all the work will be completed within six months to get ready for Dasara 2021.

"The mega project has been planned to pull tourists who come to Dasara Exhibition and make the place another tourist attraction. The project envisages planting greenery in the present desolated areas. We intend to build a garden with flowering and ornamental plants and that is why the contract has been handed over to the Horticulture Department," Hemanth Kumar Gowda said. As all the fountains inside the exhibition compound are dilapidated, the KEA will draw up plans to rejuvenate the fountains for the forthcoming Summer Festival in May this year, he added. KEA CEO Girish and others were present.

Is city doctors' assailant, a professional criminal?

Cops working on clues; injured couple recovering

Mysuru, Jan.30 (RK&SSV)- If extra precaution by the assailant is any indication, it is clear that the miscreant, who assaulted and robbed the aged doctor couple at their house in Vijayanagar 2nd Stage in city on Thursday night, looks like a professional criminal.

Dr. Keshav P. Raichurkar and his wife Dr. Krishnakumari

Meanwhile, Dr. Keshav P. Raichurkar and Dr. Krishnakumari, the injured couple in the assault, are recovering in Apollo BGS Hospital. Dr. Keshav has been shifted to the ward, said doctors attending on the duo.

After banging the head of Dr. Krishnakumari against the wall and stabbing Dr. Keshav repeatedly with a knife on his chin, neck and other parts of the body, the assailant washed his hands and legs in the bathroom. Later, he poured water on the floor and the wall to remove the foot and the finger prints.

Usually these things are done only by habitual offenders not to leave evidence on the crime spot. It is said that the finger print experts from the Police Department had to struggle to collect the foot and finger prints of the assailant in order to match with it with the habitual criminals.

The special team constituted to nab the attacker was collecting details of all those who had visited the Diagnostic Centre run by the Doctor couple in Saraswathipuram, seeking job. The tower location of the iPhone snatched from Dr. Keshava by the accused is being looked into. Suspects from nearby areas have been picked for questioning. The aides of several criminals in Kuvempunagar and Saraswathipuram Police Stations limits were also being questioned to find out the identity of the assailant.
